

School vists—

To gain the maximum benefit from your visit to the Gallery we suggest that teachers visit the Gallery in advance and view the relevant exhibition or discuss the works with the Gallery Educator.

Student visits must be booked in advance. To make a booking, please contact Gail Frost, Gallery Educator.

To prepare your students for the visit please read pre-visit information below.

Cost—

Guided tours

A $3.00 per head entry fee is charged for students.

Self guided tours

No entry fee is charged for teachers and their students visiting the gallery.

Pre-visit information—

We ask that students (and other group visitors) observe the following guidelines in order to preserve our collection.

- Large bags to be left in the cloak room. School bags and other bulky items are not permitted in the Gallery and we ask that you leave these items in our cloak room.
- Food and drink is not allowed inside the Gallery
- Please do not run
- In consideration of the other visitors and the safety of the artworks, we ask that movement through the Gallery be orderly.
- Teachers to accompany their group throughout the Gallery visit at all times
- Stools and clip boards are available for student use
- Pencils are to be used in the Gallery
- Ink is difficult to remove from most surfaces. For this reason, we prefer students to use pencils in the Gallery.
- Photography. Photography is not permitted in the Gallery. Postcards of some works are available from the Gallery shop or in the Education Kit.
- Please do not touch. Even the gentlest touch can damage works of art.
