Cutting Through Time—Cressida Campbell, Margaret Preston, and the Japanese Print

18 May to 28 July

This exceptionally beautiful Geelong Gallery-curated exhibition examines the influence of Japanese woodblock prints (ukiyo-e) on the famed contemporary Australian painter and printmaker, Cressida Campbell, and on the ground-breaking modernist painter and printmaker, Margaret Preston.

The exhibition presents their work in the context of their love of, and the influence on their work of, the serene aesthetics and sophistication of historical Japanese ukiyo-e prints.

Open daily | Entry fees apply

Learn Space—Japanese printmaking

18 May to 28 July

Visit the Gallery's Learn Space and learn more about Japanese woodblock printmaking techniques and processes used by ukiyo-e artists.

Open daily | Entry included with exhibition ticket

The O'Donohue & Kiss Gift

until 28 July

This diverse selection of works is drawn from generous gifts made to Geelong Gallery by local collectors Conrad O'Donohue and Rosemarie Kiss in 2010 and 2019.

Open daily | Free entry

Dianne Fogwell—Prescience

until 28 July

Dianne Fogwell's multi-panelled installation, Prescience, presents a panoramic view of the Australian landscape, highlighting both its beauty and its precarity due to climate change. The installation is accompanied by a musical composition by Reuben Lewis taking inspiration from the choreography and sounds of the natural world.

Open daily | Free entry

Jacobus Capone—Forewarning (Act 4): Demarcation

until 28 July

The recently acquired dual-channel video work Demarcation (2022) is the fourth act in Jacobus Capone's ongoing performative project Forewarning. Instigated in 2018, the project is staged within specific environments that have become inherently fragile through time and human intervention.

Open daily | Free entry

A Geelong Gallery exhibition

Cutting Through Time

Cressida Campbell, Margaret Preston, and the Japanese Print

18 May to 28 July 2024

Welcome

Welcome to Geelong Gallery's latest exclusive exhibition.

As the first significant survey of Margaret Preston's work in more than a decade, the Victorian government is proud to support this exhibition through the Regional Events Fund.

Its ambitious concept—showcasing Preston's work alongside Cressida Campbell pieces and examining the influence of Japanese woodblock prints on both artists—will bring thousands of visitors to the Bellarine and raise the region's profile as a premier destination for arts and cultural experiences.

I hope you enjoy the exhibition and I encourage you to explore everything on offer in this beautiful part of Victoria.

The Hon. Steve Dimopoulos MP
Minister for Tourism, Sport and Major Events, Victorian Government

The City of Greater Geelong is proud to be a Presenting Partner of this exclusive exhibition.

Geelong Gallery is one of Victoria's leading cultural destinations, and this unique insight into two loved and influential Australian artists is another significant drawcard.

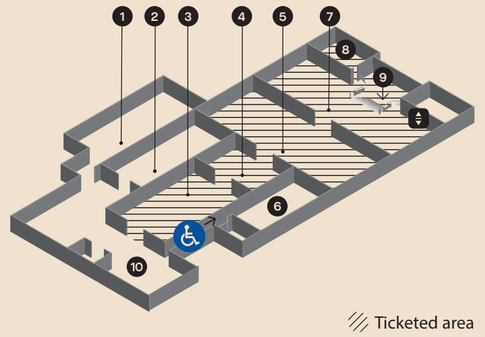

We welcome residents and visitors to central Geelong, and hope they enjoy a wide range of attractions and activities while they are here.

Trent Sullivan
Mayor, City of Greater Geelong
